

What You Need to Know About Overdrafts and Overdraft Fees

An overdraft occurs when you do not have enough money (based on the available balance) in your account to cover a transaction, but the credit union pays that transaction anyway. HRCU can cover your overdrafts in two different ways:

1. We have Savings Overdraft Protection that comes with your account if you qualify.
2. We have Standard Overdraft Practices (Courtesy Pay Privilege).

What are the Savings Overdraft Protections that come with my account?

We do transfer any available funds from your primary share savings account.

- You may choose to add/link any additional savings/club accounts to your checking account as added overdraft protection.

What are the Courtesy Pay Practices that may be available with my account?

We do authorize and pay overdrafts for the following types of transactions:

- Checks and other transactions made using your checking account number
- Automatic Clearing House (ACH) transactions, such as automatic bill payment. We do not authorize and pay overdrafts for the following types of transactions:

- o ATM transactions
- o Debit card transactions

We pay overdrafts at our discretion, which means we do not guarantee that we will always authorize and pay any type of transaction. If we do not authorize and pay an overdraft, your transaction will be declined.

What fees will I be charged if HRCU pays my overdraft ?

Savings Overdraft Protection

- We may transfer available funds and charge you a $5.00 fee per transfer.

Courtesy Pay

- If we do not pay an overdraft, your transaction will be returned and/or declined. If an item is returned and/or declined, you will be charged a $29 nonsufficient funds (NSF) fee.
- You will incur a $29 fee each me an overdraft is paid. There is no limit on the total fees charged to you for overdrawing your account.
- If you opted in for Courtesy Pay on Debit Card transactions and become overdrawn due to a debit card transaction of less than $5.00, HRCU will not impose a Courtesy Pay fee. If your account is already overdrawn and you authorize a debit card transaction of less than $5, HRCU will impose a Courtesy Pay fee.
- If you are opted in for Courtesy Pay and a debit card transaction is successfully authorized on a positive, available balance, but posts to your account when your available balance is negative, you will not be assessed a courtesy pay fee for that authorized positive, settle negative charge.

What if I want HRCU to authorize and pay overdrafts on my debit card transactions?
